

THANK YOU FOR CHOOSING US

We hope you look good and feel good in our uniforms. However, we also understand that sometimes things don't work out once you've received your order.

Here's a little guide to help you with your returns.

When you receive your order, please thoroughly inspect all products as we cannot accept returns on our online products more than 14 business days after receipt.

- Please initiate your return request as promptly as possible once you have received your item.
- In order to initiate a return, send us an email at hello@theuniformstylist.com.au and await our response within 24-48 business hours
- We will issue you an approval code for your return.
- Then, pack and seal the item/s in their original packaging and post the parcel back to us at the address we provide via registered post (as we cannot be responsible for parcels lost or damaged in transit).
- Unless your product is deemed faulty by our Quality Control team, in which case, you will not be liable for return postage costs, and these fees will be refunded to you

We will inspect your return when it arrives and if it meets the above criteria, issue your refund within 14 business days. If it does not meet the above criteria, we will contact you with next steps.

Please note we cannot accept returns over the phone, so please keep this note handy for future reference

More information about our returns policy can be found at <https://theuniformstylist.com/returns-policy/>
